

If these photos look familiar it's because we held this same high ground for the Lord six years ago. This is the village of Budila. The people here are mostly Gypsy. They rally to the public preaching of the gospel. If these photos look strangely different it's because the people in them are six years older.

We have a group visiting from Capitol City Baptist Church (our home church) in Austin, TX. For most in the group it is their first trip to Europe and they are all eyes and ears.

Ben Thompson, one of the pastors at CCBC is preaching in sun glasses. Adrian, one of our preachers here is preaching with a Jesus Saves shirt. Bro. Logan preaches with Cornel interpreting. Peter Militaru, our only senior besides me preaches very well at nearly 74.

Pray for us as our life DRASTICALLY changes beginning Monday. We have 7 weeks of intense Bible Institute at the end of which we immediately fly to USA for four months of presenting the new work in the Philippines. Then we leave for PI the first week of the new year 2012. We truly covet your prayers.

Preaching the gospel wherever we go - Gerald Sutek and the SWAT TEAM for Christ - 2Tim. 1:8, Amos 5:10, Ezek. 2:5
