

FRUIT THAT REMAIN

"Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you." - Joh_15:16

The man (Bobby 47) in the photo was sitting quietly while we began our street meeting...I waved to him as we began to sing. The Lord nudged my heart to speak with him. As the preaching began he was now reading a Chick tract (Love Story) so I approached him and asked if he spoke English, and he replied as all Filipinos, "A little". Bobby listened to the whole presentation of the gospel and the plan of salvation, reading out loud the Bible along with me. I asked him if he was interested in salvation... "Yes"...would he be willing to bow on his knees with me in the middle of this busy park...to pray... "Yes". After verses on assurance he expressed a desire to attend our church. I showed him the map on the back of the tract and, as I do with everyone, because all are familiar with this landmark close to our church, I asked him if he knew where "the Lumbia jail was"... sheepishly he replied... "Yes...I spent five years there". Please pray that Bobby comes this Sunday and becomes fruit that remain as in the above verse. This was a good day preaching in the park.

MY OH MY LOOK AT ALL THOSE SCHOOL SUPPLIES

The Cheerful Giver Christian charity sent us all of these for free distribution. Please pray with us as our students leave on their annual mission journey. They will go to the mountains to minister and distribute these treasures among the indigenous people. They will travel a whole day and spend several busy days there in early and mid-April.

HAND QUICKER THAN THE EYE

Right in the middle of the busiest market in our city of a million, Mike Wood, one of our senior students, gets the immediate attention of about 35 people while he ties the small rope to his large metal ring... tells the story of being bound by sin...covers it with a red JESUS SAVES shirt and neatly slips the ring free of the rope. The red shirt represents the blood of Jesus. Mike will use this effectively while ministering to the indigenous people next month.

NIGHT RIDERS

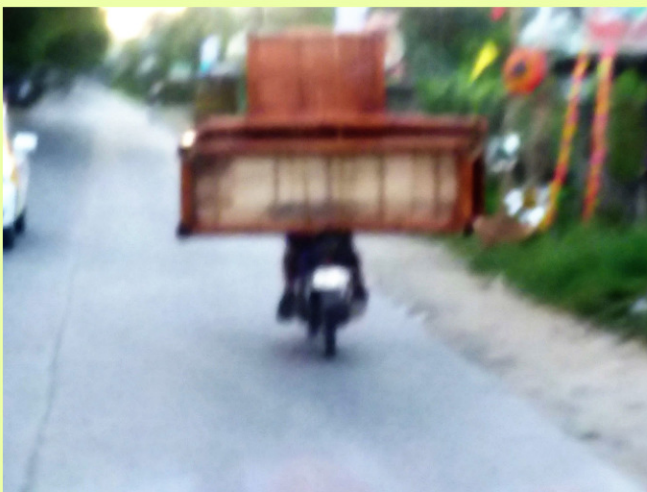

Sorry for the photo quality. This is a very common scene in the Philippines but notice they are holding onto the outside and sitting all over the top because the inside is squeeze-room only. This is perfectly legal but I get a fat fine if I don't have my seat belt on inside my vehicle...Oh well, No inequities in heaven.

THE FALSE PROPHET OF THE FALSE GOD OF FALSE SCIENCE

One of my side ministries is exposing "Silly Science" articles in the news. In prayer meeting I announced that the false prophet of the false god of false science had recanted of his "Big Bang" theory and has become a Bible believer. Stephen Hawking died.

WHAT IS THIS

Figure out what this photo is showing, only in the Philippines and you can win P1000 to be collected upon arrival of your visit to our mission field.

ALL IS WELL

School is out for the summer here and the administration is taking a deep breath. The scholarship to sponsor a needy child for next year's school year is still open...we have had several to participate. The church is still under construction on the inside. Pray with us for money to continue to flow for the ongoing-finishing-up progress to continue...slow but consistent. Attendance in church last Sunday AM broke a hundred for the first time at 116. Pray with us for new Institute students for the next year. We will have a graduation at the end of this year. Prison ministries, both men and women are running full tilt and interest among the prisoners is high. Public school ministry is very exciting to minister to 600 children once a month. Police and old folks home and all other ministries are all unbelievable opportunities. Praise the Lord. Serving the Lord with excitement in a foreign land...
